SCHOLARSHIP AND BURSARY PROGRAMME

Institut Paul Bocuse aims to make its courses accessible to as many students as possible. The introduction of a scholarship and bursary programme was the initiative of the G&G Pélisson Foundation for Institut Paul Bocuse.

The scholarship and bursary programme is reserved for students enrolled on Institut Paul Bocuse's Bachelor programmes.

It functions separately to support provided by public authorities (the CROUS in France, scholarships or bursaries awarded by the government of the student's country of origin, etc...).

This programme has been set up thanks to the support of corporate and individual donors who wish to enable deserving and enthusiastic students to live their dream.

OUR SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES

Details of the conditions for the award of scholarships and bursaries are provided on page 5.

Reserved for students admitted to year 1

Academic excellence scholarship

Scholarship for deserving students under the age of 26 who can demonstrate excellent academic results prior to admission to Institut Paul Bocuse.
Awarded to French and overseas students.

Equal Opportunities Bursary

Awarded to students under 26 years of age with limited household income.
Awarded to students of French nationality. For overseas students, their eligibility criteria should be checked before applying.

Mobility Grants

Applications should be made to the International Mobility Department.
Your contact: Elena Camilletti - elena.camilletti@institutpaulbocuse.com

After consideration of the applications, Erasmus grants or grants from the Regional Authority may be awarded to students.
In the event that students do not receive an Erasmus or Regional Authority grant, the G&G Pélisson Foundation for Institut Paul Bocuse may award further mobility grants.

Helping Hand Bursary

Applications can be made at any time of the year. There is no call for applications.

A form must be submitted at the time of application. The Helping Hand Bursary is non-renewable and will be awarded only once during the student's course of studies.

The Award Commission will give an answer within 15 days of receiving the application.

EXAMINATION OF APPLICATIONS

All applications for scholarships or bursaries are considered by an Award Commission, whose members include:

- the President of the G&G Pélisson Foundation for Institut Paul Bocuse
- the Managing Director of Institut Paul Bocuse Education Group
- the Academic Director of the Bachelor programmes of Institut Paul Bocuse Education Group
- the General Delegate of the G&G Pélisson Foundation for Institut Paul Bocuse
- the Sponsorship-Communications Manager / Scholarship & Bursary Programme Manager

Applications are studied on a case-by-case basis according to the specific award criteria for each type of scholarship or bursary. These criteria consist principally of:

- resource-based criteria (income of the student and/or their household, expenses, etc.)
- family situation (isolation / break-up / distance / family responsibilities, etc.)
- academic achievements, attendance, personal motivation, and community engagement

Some applications may be subject to an interview with the student.

PAYMENT OF SCHOLARSHIPS

At the time of application, the student is informed of the date of the Award Commission which will examine the application.

The G&G Pélisson Foundation for Institut Paul Bocuse will give notification of the result within 72 hours of the Commission meeting.

Payment of Scholarships & Bursaries

For the Academic Excellence Scholarship - Equal Opportunities Bursary - Helping Hand Bursary payment is made directly to Institut Paul Bocuse by bank transfer and is deducted from the awardee's tuition fees.

For Mobility Grants
payment is made to the student's personal bank account, domiciled in France.

COMMITMENTS OF G&G PELISSON FOUNDATION FOR INSTITUT PAUL BOCUSE SCHOLARSHIP & BURSARY RECIPIENTS

Recipients undertake to participate in a certain number of events and operations to promote the school and its Foundation.

Recipients undertake to observe exemplary academic, professional and personal behaviour. Inappropriate attitude or behaviour, on or off campus, may result in immediate withdrawal of the award.

The Scholarship & Bursary Award Commission reserves the right to request a partial or total reimbursement of the award, in case of non-exemplary behaviour leading to disciplinary sanctions or in the case of a recipient terminating their course of study.

OTHER TYPES OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Other financial assistance available from the G&G Pélisson Foundation for Institut Paul Bocuse

A Student Support Fund has been set up to provide occasional assistance to students experiencing unexpected financial difficulties in their everyday lives (rent, health costs, food).

The assistance is granted after an application has been submitted and an interview has been held with the student.

Other international mobility assistance

Thanks to the European "Erasmus +" programme and to bilateral student exchange agreements with non-European countries, you can spend part of your course of study abroad at one of Institut Paul Bocuse's international partner institutions.

For more information, please contact the International Mobility Department: Elena Camilletti - elena.camilletti@institutpaulbocuse.com

Support from the French State

Since 2019, Institut Paul Bocuse students have been eligible for CROUS income-related bursaries. Check if you are eligible on the CROUS website.

To obtain information on the different types of State assistance (CROUS bursaries, personalised housing allowance, etc.), please contact the Campus team at Institut Paul Bocuse: campus@institutpaulbocuse.com
